Dear Colleagues:

I am pleased to announce the appointment of Valerie J. Huber as Chief of Staff. Ms. Huber's wealth of professional experience in the field of public policy will serve her well in this position.

Ms. Huber joins OASH after most recently serving as President and CEO of Ascend, a Washington DC-based professional association that champions youth to make healthy life and relationship decisions. Prior to that she worked for the Ohio Department of Health as manager of the sexual risk avoidance program, where she provided oversight and grant awards to community programs serving more than 100,000 students per year.

Ms. Huber earned her Master's of Education and Bachelor's of Arts from Cedarville University in Cedarville, Ohio.

Please join me in congratulating Ms. Huber on her appointment. I look forward to working with her.

Valerie will be sitting on the 7th floor of the Humphrey Building and can be reached at valerie.huber@hhs.gov; (202) 401-8034.

Sincerely,

Don Wright, M.D., M.P.H.

PROFILE

Creative entrepreneurial leader with experience in overcoming obstacles with diplomacy. Proficient in cultivating a common vision and purpose, especially during difficult or challenging situations. Makes connections between seemingly disparate ideas and applies them in support of a strategy. Personal ethics are foundational to professional life.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Ascend, Washington, DC

President/CEO (2012-present)

Executive Director (2007 – 2012)

- Vision. Co-created, planned and implemented strategy sessions with national leaders that resulted in the creation of Ascend. Plotted a long-term strategy for the issue and successfully executed it through messaging, research, and tactical, incremental success.
- Media. Chief national media spokesperson for Sexual Risk Avoidance education (SRA- formerly known as abstinence education) in major print, radio and television outlets, including the New York Times, Washington Post, USA Today, Newsweek, The Economist, Associated Press, NPR, ABC, NBC, CBS and Fox News.
- National Policy. Guided bipartisan efforts in Congress, resulting in (1) creation of the Competitive Abstinence Education & Sexual Risk Avoidance Education Programs, (2) funding parity between the two sex education approaches in FY 2012-FY 2017 House LHHS bills and Senate FY 2016 bill, (3) reauthorization of state block grant for abstinence education in a Democratic-controlled Congress and White House, (4) first Congressional sexual risk avoidance (SRA) bipartisan support letters, (5) bicameral introduction of the Abstinence Education Reallocation Act and the Healthy Relationships Act. (5) annual congressional briefings to expand support for SRA education. Overall, we were able to maintain SRA education as federal priority, reviving the issue from $0 to bringing more than $½ billion to communities across America under Democratic administration. Expert resource for key Congressional committees.
- State Policy. (1) Drafted model legislation, providing the basis for one state updating its sex education law. (2) Designed strategy and oversaw successful efforts in at least 8 states resulting in the successful protection of SRA education. (3) Proposed and managed outreach to more than half of all Governor's offices resulting in 37 states implementing the Title V Abstinence Education Block Grant.
- Partnerships. Led substantive meetings with HHS and the White House under both Democratic and Republican Administrations, leading to increased bipartisan support for SRA education. Worked closely with other organizations to amplify and coordinate messaging surrounding SRA.
- Messaging. Changed messaging surrounding abstinence education to the public health and holistic Sexual Risk Avoidance terminology, resulting in increased support among those previously unsupportive.
- Professionalism. Co-created and facilitated the graduate-level Sexual Risk Avoidance Specialist (SRAS) credential that ensures minimum levels of professionalism for the SRA field. Nearly 1,000 individuals have completed the training to date, opening significantly more educational opportunities for students. HHS recognizes this credential as the only meaningful one for SRA.

Ohio Department of Health, Columbus, OH

Abstinence Manager for State of Ohio & Title V Coordinator (2004-2007)

- Ohio's program became a model for other states to follow as evidenced by invitation from HHS to share best practices with other state programs during national conferences.
- Set curricular guidelines for state abstinence education programs serving 100,000 students.
- Wrote and implemented standards for medical accuracy in Ohio.
- Created state objective review guidelines for funding proposals.
- Introduced sexual risk avoidance programming in Ohio for college students.
- Initiated 4 state-wide research studies with high school and college students, parents, & health depts.
- Frequent presenter at meetings and conferences.
- Media spokesperson for the Ohio Department of Health abstinence program on behalf of the governor.
- Developed first statewide Abstinence Education Conference and Youth Leadership Conference, which became a model for other states.

REACH of Southwestern Ohio, Greenville, Ohio

Founder/ Executive Director (1999-2004)

- Founded first character and sexual risk avoidance organization in two counties of Ohio.
- Wrote proposal for competitive funding and secured largest grant of its kind in first attempt.
- Initiated school-based services that grew from zero to ~10,000 students in one county, and eventually growing to ~20,000 students in two counties.

SELECTED PUBLICATIONS AND SPEECHES

- The First Line of Defense (2016, August). Citizen Magazine.
- Making Your Message Matter: Communication strategies. (2016). Ascend.
- Abstinence Defined: Theory, Practice & Legal Practices (2001). Ohio Abstinence Coalition
- SRA Works (formerly Abstinence Works), (2010-2016). Ascend.
- A History of Sex Education Since 1900. (2014). International Journal of Education Reform.
- Developing Habits of the Heart. (2001). REACH.
- Sexual Risk Avoidance Education: Considerations for Protecting Teen Health (2012). NAEA.
- The History of Sex Education in America Since 1900 (2010). Master's Thesis, Cedarville University.

Charmaine Yoest, Ph.D.

(b)(6)

Dr. Charmaine Yoest is a Senior Fellow at American Values in Washington DC. As an author, writer and political commentator with an expertise in public policy, she has a track record serving in many facets of political life — in the White House, on a presidential campaign and leading a national nonprofit. She has appeared as a spokesperson on every major television network and cable outlet, and in print in the leading national publications. She has provided testimony in front of the United States Congress on multiple occasions, and is a frequent keynote speaker across the country.

Charmaine served as a Surrogate for the Trump for President 2016 campaign, appearing on FOX, CNN and MSNBC as an advocate. She began her career working in the West Wing of the White House for President Ronald Reagan in the office of Presidential Personnel. She also served as a Senior Advisor to the 2008 Huckabee for President Campaign, as part of the team that won the Iowa primary.

Numerous publications have profiled Charmaine and her work. In a feature piece, The New York Times said that "her personal appeal gives her outsize visibility." The Christian Science Monitor describes her as "a pragmatic force." The New Republic describes her as "compelling." Even Mother Jones described her as "charismatic."

Serving as President and CEO of Americans United for Life for over seven years, the public interest law firm grew significantly, more than tripling its budget and donors. The mailing list increased by 530%; the email list increased by 6000%. During her tenure, AUL played a pivotal role in leading one of the most influential periods of advancement in the pro-life movement's history, being involved in the passage nationwide of over 83 pieces of legislation. The organization also helped spark a Congressional Select Committee investigation. Previously, she served as a Senior Fellow and Vice President of Communications at Family Research Council, one of the largest pro-family public policy organizations in the country.

Her educational path began with a B.A. in Political Science from Wheaton College, and after the White House, included an independent study at Oxford University in ethics and philosophy. Later, she earned a Ph.D. from the Department of Politics at the University of Virginia. She received Mellon, Olin, Bradley and Kohler fellowships, and wrote a dissertation on parental leave policy, after directing a national study funded by the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation. Her master's thesis focused on tax policy.

As a writer, Charmaine was featured along with Michelle Obama and Rick Warren in Time magazine's 2013 Thanksgiving feature. Charmaine is also the co-author of Mother in the Middle, an examination of childcare policy, published by HarperCollins, and is currently working on a second book related to modern feminism.
